

77 Grove St.
Bridgeport Conn.
Feb. 9. 1893

My dear Mrs. Erwin,-

I wish I could expres to you my sympathy in your affliction, and how sorry I am for Mr. Erwin.

I know that you will feel that you cannot afford to send Albert to my school while there are so many ways for the money. but as soon as you can spare him to go to school anywhere, I will count it a pleasure to still be his teacher, without charge.

His example to the other children as a quiet industrious scholar will amply repay all I can do for him.

Sincerely your friend
Carrie W. Filler.